

For Spouses & Partners of Clergy:

Seeing your roles changing during this pandemic?

Want to define them more assertively?

Looking for shared wisdom & hope?

You don't have to go it alone.

Artos Retreats and Samaritan Counseling Center invite you to a group exclusively for spouses and partners of clergy.

- Clergy Spouse Facilitator
- Interdenominational
- Max 90 minutes/session
- Online (confidential, not recorded)
- Small – max eight people
- 6 sessions (every 4th Thursday evening of the month)

Come for the first two FREE sessions of facilitated discussion, common real-life scenarios, and tips. Stay for the next four sessions, customized and facilitated according to the group's desired direction. Fee $30*/session.

**Assistance available upon request.*

First Session:

Thursday, January 28, 2021
at 7pm via Zoom.

*Start your new year fresh,
with support from others!*

Deadline for registration:

January 21, 2021

REGISTER NOW!

Contact either:

Julie Anderman,
Executive Director, Artos Retreats
Julie@ArtosRetreats.org
(717) 492-4238

David Miron,
Coordinator, Clergy & Congregation Care
Samaritan Counseling Center
dmiron@scclanc.org
(717) 560-1949 x 108

Meet your experienced facilitator:

Julie Anderman

Executive Director, Artos Retreats
Certified professional coach
Clergy spouse over 20 years

